The Inconsistent Journal of a God: Volume Infinity

19 0 1

Chapter 1 by Brendan

To answer your first question, yes I am a god. To answer your second one, they're not as great as you people make them out to be. I mean, we have immortality and power of creation and everything but people seem to always think we're on some sort of moral high ground... we're not even close. Also, yes I said we, as in multiple. It's a big community and everything, but I don't really like many people in it. Let me just end this entry off by saying that all of you humans worshiping them all the time really swells their egos.
